

| | | |
|------|---------------|--|
| 1992 | Sue Kesey | Lifetime Achievement Award |
| | Craig Winters | One Person Can Make a Difference Award |
| | Gavin McComas | Money Where Your Mouth Is Award |

| | | |
|------|--------------|--|
| 1993 | Marta Boyett | Acts of midwifery, feats of daring, years of wisdom, and for keeping the Provender Alliance afloat. |
| | Teré Ossim | Five years of dedicated leadership in service to the Provender Alliance and for contributions above and beyond the call of duty. |
| | Cathy Kelly | Years of effort dedicated to spreading the word about Provender and for her undying support for women in the industry. |
| | Don Lane | certificates for their tireless dedication in the battle for health freedom. |
| | Cynthia Beal | certificates for their tireless dedication in the battle for health freedom. |

| | | |
|------|-------------------------------|--|
| 1994 | Michael Funk | The Look How Far He Got and Never Had to Wear a Tie Award (aka the Backhaul King Award) |
| | Amber Lunch | The Generosity of Spirit Award (aka the Princess Award) |
| | Springfield Creamery | certificate of extreme appreciation for their most amazing comeback after a most devastating fire. |
| | The Food Co-op, Port Townsend | certificate of extreme appreciation for all their assistance with the conference. |

| | | |
|------|---------------------|---|
| 1995 | Don Nordnes | The Heart of Gold Award for years of generous support to individuals and businesses in the industry. |
| | Vern Ho | The World's a Better Place Award for contributions that have shaped our businesses from the ground up, and for teaching us how to make our dreams a reality. |
| | Phred Nguyen Miller | The Unsung Hero Award for selflessly giving of his time, talents, and money in service to the Provender Alliance, and for doing it all in his own inimitable style. |
| | Robert Grott | The Big Trees from Little Acorns Grow Award for keeping the Provender Alliance alive during her seedling stage. |
| | Theresa Marquez | certificate of thanks for their contributions to Provender during its formative years. |
| | Laurie McClain | certificate of thanks for their contributions to Provender during its formative years. |

| | | |
|------|-------------------|--|
| 1996 | Cheryl Bottger | The Big Fish in a Big Pond Award for courageously using her influence to better the industry, and for her dedication to ethics and responsibility. |
| | Eartha McClelland | The Integrity in Action Award for consistently taking the "high road" in all her dealings, for her graciousness and professionalism, and for her unselfish devotion to the principles of the Provender Alliance. |

| | |
|-----------------|---|
| David ResSeguie | The Technology in Service to Us, Not the Other Way Around Award for his willingness to share the massive resources of his mind, his dedication to education, and for his tireless efforts to provide a bridge from the Gods and Goddesses of technology to us mere mortals. |
|-----------------|---|

| | | |
|------|-----------------|-----------------------|
| 1997 | Kathleen Downey | Newsletter excellence |
| | Mel Bankoff | ? |

| | | |
|------|-------------------------------|--|
| 1998 | Deb Leyva | Jackie Joyner-Kersey Award for explosively meeting the needs of Provender from the starting block to the finish line. |
| | Grace Cox | Rosie the Riveter Award for championing the rights of workers in the field and store for economic justice. |
| | Esther Konop | Trail Blazer Award for forging new paths throughout the natural foods industry and setting the markers for others to follow. |
| | Community Food Co-op, Bozeman | The Frequent Flyer Award for tireless and dedicated pursuit of education and all time most miles accumulated in the course of attending Provender conferences. |

| | | |
|------|--------------------------------|---|
| 1999 | Sandi Zimmerman | Trail Blazer Award for forging new paths throughout the natural foods industry and setting the markers for others to follow. |
| | Kettle Foods | Pioneer Award for being an organization thta began with a vision, and having the integrity, perseverance, and inspiration to recognize the need for a new quality product. |
| | Central Co-op's Madison Market | Where There's a Will, There's a Way Award for having the unwavering determination to grow in the face of adversity, succeeding against all odds, and fulfilling the needs of its members. |
| | Evan Price | Lighthouse Award for taking the helm and holding fast to the principles and mission of Provender, being a beacon in the face of the storm, and guiding us to calmer waters. |

| | | |
|------|-------------------|--|
| 2000 | Goldie Caughlan | The Gold-"ie" Standard Award for continually raising the standard of education and excellence in the Pacific Northwest natural foods industry and for instilling her heart of gold in all her endeavors. |
| | Brad Smith | The "Hard As Nails" Award for being an adhesive strength in the expansion of the Community Food Store, and creating an indelible bond through diligent hard work between community and dreams. |
| | Moscow Food Co-op | The "Over Hill and Over Dale" Award for continued support of Provender for over 20 years and supplying the community of Moscow and beyond with an ever-expanding cornucopia of natural foods. |

| | |
|--------------|--|
| Cal Miller | The “To Boldly Go Where No Broker Has Gone Before” Award for traveling above and beyond The call of duty, from Astoria to Zigzag, from Boise to Yachats, and all points in-between, with a time-warped sense of humor all along the way. |
| Tim O’Connor | The Good Deed Doer Award for devotion to the industry, for judicious decision making, for insight, and for compassion. |

| | | |
|------|-------------|--|
| 2001 | Todd Wood | The Spectacles to the Future Award, General Manager, Skagit Valley Food Co-op, for making mansions from mole hills and progressing forward while staying focused on the greater vision. |
| | Chris Brown | The “No Problem” Award for gracefully overcoming obstacles and limitations, despite the predictable chaos of the natural world, thereby providing an abundant cornucopia of natural food delights for many a Provender conference. |
| | Jan Cole | The Guardian Angel Award for selfless devotion to Provender’s goals and ideals, for vigilant patience through thick and thin, and for protection of the history and herstory of the natural foods movement. |
| | Nash Huber | The Organic Golden Carrot Award, a visionary, looking beyond 7 generations, and a charismatic teacher of what’s best for the land and all its beings, including us. |

| | | |
|------|---------------------|---|
| 2002 | Andy Gallo | The Heart of Gold Award for his commitment to honoring every individual, and for hearing and acknowledging each quiet voice in the crowd. |
| | Carolee Colter | The Rare Bird Award for pollinating Provender members for countless years with fertile ideas of growth and prosperity through co-operation. |
| | John Koch | The Our Belly’s Full Award for gracefully and skillfully going above and beyond the call feeding and nourishing Provender members with finesse and a cornucopia of cuisine. |
| | Royal Blue Organics | The Best Mam We Ever Had Award for tirelessly giving Provender love, support, and yes, plenty of coffee and promoting the values and ethics that Provender holds dear, reminding us all to honor our Mam. |

| | | |
|------|----------------|---|
| 2003 | Paul Stogner | The Retailers Friend Award for your devotion to people above product and being a straight-talking advocate to retailers’ needs, regardless of size. |
| | Alex Beamer | The 4 Nickels Award for minting new paradigms of holistic business operations and balancing the equation between quality of life, human need, and financial success for the strength and betterment of all. |
| | Javelin Ormond | The Best Kept Promise Award for his unceasing commitment to the heart and soul of Provender by word, deed and spirit. |

| | |
|--------------------------------------|--|
| People's Food Co-op | The Power of the People's Award for being an ongoing demonstration of environmental responsibility and for a commitment to sustainability through fostering community involvement. |
| Columbia Gorge Organic Fruit Company | Certificate of Appreciation in recognition of founder Ron Stewart. He was a pioneer and visionary in the organic farming and natural foods community. |

| | | |
|------|----------------------|---|
| 2004 | Organic Valley | The Outstanding in the Field Award for continued commitment, promotion and advocacy for a sustainable economy, happier animals and a healthier planet. |
| | Equal Exchange | The Fair Handshake Award for pioneering fair trade practices, building bridges between cultures and fostering economies with justice and integrity. |
| | Quincy Natural Foods | The Homegrown Foods Award for building community with holistic vision, cooperation and a passionate commitment to collaboration. |
| | Maggie's Organics | The Golden Needle and Thread Award for tireless commitment and action in building local communities and economies through international commerce. |
| | Wolaver's | The Crystal Stein Award in appreciation of making Provender's cup runneth over with fun and good spirit by providing quality crafted beverages and maintaining a commitment to the organic tradition. |

| | | |
|------|--------------------|--|
| 2005 | Saul Fortunoff | The Bigger Isn't Better Award for consistently proving that growth doesn't necessarily equal success and that satisfaction comes from devotion to one's highest values. |
| | Rick Sheller | "Speak Softly but Carry a Big Vegetable" Award for being instrumental in the founding and growth of the natural products economy with grace, foresight, humility, and unflappable commitment. We all owe you our thanks |
| | Olympia Food Co-op | All for One Award for a commitment to collective decision-making and egalitarian principles, and being a conscientious voice. You provide a shining example of effective alternatives within and beyond the natural foods community. |
| | Kathleen Tehada | The Calm Within a Storm Award for unwavering support of customers and co-workers throughout many changing waters with dedication, consistency, humor, and kindness. |

| | | |
|------|---------------------------|--|
| 2006 | Oceana Natural Food Co-op | The Good Neighbor Award for extending a hand by delivering natural products and helping their coastal neighbors also become meccas of good food for all. |
|------|---------------------------|--|

| | |
|---------------------------|--|
| Toby Alves | The Flower Child Bean Curd Phenom Award in appreciation for being a cornerstone in the natural foods community and over 30 years of satisfying and educating consumers, company and family with tireless effort and enduring love. |
| Kelly Miles | American Green Idol Award bestowed for not only being talented, humorous, and good-natured, but for a strong and enthusiastic performance in all aspects of life. We whole-heartedly applaud you. |
| Organically Grown Company | The Yellow Eco-Brick Road Award presented for attention to the footprint left behind, creating a path toward a sustainable tomorrow, and taking the deliberate steps to get there. |

| | | |
|------|--------------------------------|--|
| 2007 | Bruce Peterson | The Keep on Truckin' Award for resolute diligence over mountain pass and ribbons of highway for the betterment and enrichment of our industry and our communities and for bein' the "sole" of natural foods. |
| | Jack Lee | The Unbrokered Heart Award for the faithful promotion of natural foods to the benefit of countless multitudes while maintaining dignity, integrity, and unwavering commitment. |
| | Annie Hoy | The Voice of an Angel Award bestowed for broadcasting goodwill and positive influence and ushering dreamlife to fruition. |
| | | We honor you for being a multifaceted community leader and a generous, cheerful inspiration to us all. |
| | Food Front Cooperative Grocery | The Front Lines of Sustainability Award presented for over 35 years of setting an example by confirming the principles of forward thinking and developing a holistic vision for a better community. |

| | | |
|------|-----------------------|---|
| 2008 | Oregon Tilth | The Global Steward Award presented for upholding high standards recognized the world over for the betterment of ecosystems everywhere. |
| | Sweet Creek Foods | The Rollin' River Award given for progressive action, supporting local farmers and doing right for the right reasons. In your time, in your time, those pickles will roll, roll, roll. |
| | Hummingbird Wholesale | The Progressive Pollinator Award presented for fostering the local food economy by infusing the community with insight, innovation and ethics to bring a greener outlook to fruition. |
| | Mountain Rose Herbs | The Evolution in Motion Award. Like a tadpole to a frog, evolving through awareness of the environment we all share by being actively green. "The frog does not drink up the pond in which it lives." |

| | | |
|------|---------------------|---|
| 2009 | Nature's Path Foods | The Ethical Voyager Award. Leading the organic foods community with sustainability in heart and action, protecting the future by taking care today. |
|------|---------------------|---|

| | |
|------------------------|---|
| Sundance Natural Foods | The People's marketplace Award in recognition of fostering community by serving people first with efficiency, ingenuity and creative innovation. |
| Toby's Family Foods | The Phoenix Award in honor of the extraordinary accomplishment of reviving Genesis Juice to profitability and sustainability by maintaining the highest standards in each and every bottle. |
| Kenna Eaton | The Brilliant Diamond Award bestowed for multi-faceted service to Provender Alliance, with reflective insight, clarity of perspective and highly-valued participation. |

| | | |
|------|----------------------|--|
| 2010 | Bob Moore | Pay It Forward Award for having the vision to ensure that his company is sustained by bestowing it upon those who run it |
| | Laura Stuart | Provender's Playful Pixie Award for presenting fun and amusement so that work is something to enjoy |
| | Melissa Minton | Awesome Advocate Award for leadership, activism and total commitment to Provender's values...body and soul |
| | Springfield Creamery | Foundations of Culture Award for half a century of commitment to natural foods and keeping true to their roots |

| | | |
|------|------------------------------|--|
| 2011 | Turtle Island Foods | Ultimate Vegetarian Award for more than 30 years of taking the humble soybean from the field to the dinner table and changing the way America eats |
| | First Alternative Co-op | The Best Alternative Award for over four decades of exceptional service to community through diligent promotion of healthy lifestyles and meeting the challenges of a changing marketplace |
| | Laurie Bock | Keeper of the Flame Award for nurturing the embers of Provender's ideals with a fire in your heart and a burning commitment in your soul |
| | Luna & Larry's Coconut Bliss | The Completely Blissed Out Award for pioneering your product category with uncompromising quality and the highest standards of integrity |

| | | |
|------|--------------------------|---|
| 2012 | Vicki Reich | A Stitch in Time Award for tireless efforts and hard-driving spirit to help make Provender more than we are and all we can be |
| | LifeSource Natural Foods | Oasis in the Desert Award for over a dozen years of being a refuge for their community by providing healthy food, education and quality choices |
| | Brad Averill | Overall Thoughtfulness Award for persistent reliability and loyal involvement to Provender helping us make clearer decisions with smarter minds |
| | Matthew Dillon | Seed Warrior Award for forging a culture of seed protection and integrity and creating true food security for an abundant future |

| | | |
|------|-----------------------|--|
| 2013 | Evelyn Hall | The Bodhisattva Award for being an inspirational teacher by example and helping us on the path to a better way using fun, joy, and creativity |
| | Organic Seed Alliance | The Perfect Propagator Award for protecting organic seed and ensuring vital food security for generations to come |
| | Julious "JJ" Jones | The Dancing Roadrunner Award for his fun and positive approach to the road of life and work, and years of dedicated service to our community |
| | Michelle O'Connor | Deli Diva Award for singing and sharing the glories of deli deliciousness with grace, poise, and spirited success |
| | Todd Wallace | Diplomacy in Action Award for a commitment to communication and judicious guidance, helping others to be effective leaders |
| 2014 | Winter Green Farm | Mint Condition Award in honor of infusing us with the value of exceptional stewardship and the highest quality of food production standards and the highest quality of food production standards in honor of infusing us with the value of exceptional stewardship and the highest quality of food production standards |
| | Meg Kennedy | Rebel With a Cause Award for a commitment to pure food activism and pushing the boundaries for community and personal growth |
| | Dr. Bronner's | All One Together Award for over 65 years of pioneering service, cleansing us all from the illusion that we are separate |
| | Renee Kempka | Graceful Selfless Leader Award for sincere and heartfelt compassionate leadership while maintaining a vibrant sense of humor |
| 2015 | Hood River Inn | Home Away From Home Award for responding to our needs, a willingness to learn and grow with us, and being tremendous hosts |
| | Melissa Elkins | Breakfast of Champions Award in recognition of the annual magical sourcing you perform in nourishing our Provender community |
| | Karaoke From Hell | Rock Around the Clock Award for providing a platform for the true Provender spirit with humor and an unstoppable beat |
| | Café Mam | The Rise and Shine Award for providing years of service, support and superior caffeination to the Provender family |
| 2016 | Paul Stamets | Maestro of Mycelium for the Masses Award for spreading a network of delicate connections and inoculating future innovators |

| | |
|-----------------------|--|
| Oregon's Wild Harvest | Healing From the Earth and the Heart Award for being caretakers of the land and setting the standard as passionate herbal stewards |
| Trisha Hansen | A Friend In Deed Award for unfailing dedication in support of Provender with open arms and an open heart |
| Alaffia | Beauty Through Empowerment for making the bigger world a unified community with genuine values |

| | | |
|------|-------------------------------|--|
| 2017 | Phil Spiegel | The Sweet Soytainty Award for unwavering conviction that your products are the best for both people and the planet |
| | Wilcox Family Farms | Eggcelling in the Field Award in recognition of over 108 years proving that the old ways are worth going back to. |
| | Rachel Mitrani | The Totally Heroic Commander Award for fearlessly taking the reins of Provender's bucking bronco |
| | Lisa Spicka | The Singing Sustainability Siren Award for energetically seducing the world toward preservation |
| | Richard Casio and Eli Shannon | The Notables of Nosh Award in recognition of their tireless efforts to ward off the munchies |

| | | |
|------|---------------------------------------|---|
| 2018 | Carolee Colter | Achievement for Innovative Business Practices |
| | Mountain Rose Herbs | Achievement for Innovations in Environmental Sustainability |
| | Amanda Grelock | Achievements in Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion |
| | Familias Unidas por La Justicia (FUJ) | Achievements in Community Organizing |